Leicester,
May 15/68.

Dear Mr. Garrison;

58 I find our people well pleased at the prospect of your coming to our Freedmen's Annual Meeting, — they had got the handbills ready & I have been this morning distributing them. If the weather (your old friend (?)) will only look kindly on us, I doubt not we shall have a truly good meeting. As I said, it is my intent to be at the Worcester Station, on the arrival of the 2½ (Express) Train from Boston, Monday afternoon; but, if I should be prevented, the Leicester Omnibus will call there some fifteen minutes after you arrive, and very leisurely bring you along; but I have Worcester errands to do — several —, and I can't doubt that I shall be there.

If you have still a copy to spare of the "London Breakfast Volume, I would suggest its being sent to the Library of Congress.

You didn't say anything about a change in your P.O. address,-i.e. to the Studio Building, — and so I continue to send to Roxbury.

Saturday's "Advertiser" will, probably, give the Correspondence between our Committee & yourself on the "Testimonial."

With very sincere regard

Yours

Sam'l. May Jr.
